

Article 399: Outside the Box -part 16

Manifest yourself to all you desire!

Develop your mind beyond cause and effect so it will be a true and faithful servant manifesting you to all you truly desire! Are you willing to manifest yourself to all you truly desire? ...if so, then don't even consider "getting" what you want ...or manifesting what you desire to you, which does not mean sacrificing yourself, surrendering your desires, or living only a life of service to others.

Do you really believe that all embodied things in your life occurred as a result of your holding matters in mind until they manifested as you believed and wanted? If you are in the midst of a hurricane, did you manifest the storm to you? ...or manifest yourself to the storm? If you are rich and successful, did you manifest wealth and success to you? ...or manifest yourself to wealth and success? And if you are in the midst of problems or hurts or illnesses, did you manifest them to you? ...or manifest yourself to them? If they came to you, you can declare your innocence, ...can't you? ...but if you manifested yourself to these problems, then all of your denials and protestations are empty ...aren't they?

Actually, problems and hurts and illnesses are not about responsibility ...or even about manifesting undesirable matters to you by constantly thinking them into your body and life, they magically and wisely and clearly reveal the self and life you truly desire to manifest to and live, but since you are living by cause and effect, you are struggling endlessly to manifest desirable matters to you; ...and now, not understanding these things, you will continue struggling to manifest a healing for you ...or bring about a resolution of your problems, ...won't you?

Only true offering manifests you to what you truly desire! ...this is your real empowerment in life! ...therefore, if you want to heal others ...or truly help them, show each person the tremendous difference between manifesting what they desire ...and manifesting themselves to what they truly desire. Another thing to remember and reveal to others is that everything you manifest to yourself can be taken from you ...and will gradually be lost, but what you manifest yourself to is yours forever ...as you desire.

Do not attempt to entice or manifest an intimate partner and relationship to you, instead, manifest yourself to intimacy and the companion and relationship will follow in everything.

If you and the world around you are the same ...yet different, and that is so! ...then, instead of changing yourself or the world within you and all around, are you willing to manifest yourself to the world as you truly desire? Do not attempt to create your own world or reality as you desire, for that will affect me ...and not allow me to be as I desire in your world, ...therefore, instead of manifesting things as you want, manifest yourself to the world and reality you truly desire ...and leave the world alone, for only in that can all things be themselves ...and also be in a world or reality for you as you desire.

`Are you willing to manifest self instead of manifesting to self? ...are you willing to open your manifesting eyes and minding in this way? Instead of seeking to know the truth ...and manifesting that in your body and life, manifest yourself to the truth you truly desire; ...as an illustration of this, consider whether, in an intimate-relationship, you would rather seek to know the truth of your partner and manifest that to you ...for you, or would you rather manifest yourself to your partner's truth?

Would you rather manifest an intimate-relationship to you ...or manifest yourself to intimacy ...and thus be the reason you have an intimate relationship? As a healer would you rather manifest the necessary diagnosis and treatment to you and through you to help each patient ...or manifest yourself to the diagnosis and treatment ...and thus be the reason you can help relieve their struggling? ...and guide and support them in manifesting themselves to all they truly desire?

Would you rather manifest success to you ...even though it can quickly be lost? ...or would you rather manifest yourself to success so you are the reason you are successful ...which can never be taken from you?

Would you rather manifest matters to you for a moment? ...or manifest yourself to every moment? The reason you seek to manifest to you is because cause and effect has concealed you and denied who you are, ...manifesting yourself to others as you truly desire reveals you and acknowledges you! When you consider your life deeply, haven't your struggles and conflicts always been about manifesting yourself to others as you truly desire and believe yourself to be ...and being acknowledged and approved of for that?

Do not seek to manifest God, or truth and self-awareness, or your own soul or privilegedbeing to you ...manifest yourself to all things, ...and if you have wondered what your meaningful work or purpose in life might be, consider that it is doing your utmost to awaken and enliven others to manifest themselves to their privilegedbeing and declaration ...and quicken those who wander in the darkness of cause and effect, ...are you willing to manifest your self and life to such a purpose? ...if so, do not use your mind to manifest things to you, manifest yourself to the thoughts and things you truly desire ...and let matters be as they truly are. We are reaching a point in manifesting technology beyond where we are prepared to manifest our selves and life to, for cause and effect is holding us back in darkness, ...are you at all willing to promise and manifest yourself to life beyond cause and effect?

The parasites of cause and effect are veiled deeply within you as your developing soul and God, for no matter what you may believe, cause and effect is your God ...and the soul of everything you believe and think. Do not trust cause and effect or stay in the way of cause and effect, ...manifest yourself beyond cause and effect so it has no additional will within you or power over you ...and is no longer glorified by you.

Manifesting "good" to you is not good of your choosing, ...however, you can manifest yourself to the "good" of your choosing. Remember, whatever you manifest to you as "desirable" will gradually fade, yet manifesting yourself to desirableness always remains desirable.

Your privilegedbeing is a stranger in a strange land waiting to companion with you and manifest both of you to all you both desire, yet you seek to manifest matters and emotions to yourself, ...would you rather continue reacting and manifesting the emotions you desire to you ...or manifest yourself to desirable emotions within others ...and all around you? Wouldn't you really rather manifest yourself to others? ...and in their hearts?

Understanding these things about manifesting will enhance you
More than any other teaching in life!
